Sabotage Suspected In Freight Car Fire In Truckee Tuesday

T.V.F.D., Forest Service
And Fire Train Crews
Fight Stubborn Blaze.

Officers investigating the fire which caused considerable damage to a freight car loaded with army helmet liners in the Truckee yard of the Southern Pacific Tuesday evening are inclined to believe that it may have been caused by sabotage.

Fire Chief N. F. Dolley, who, with Special Officer Al Pfandler, conducted the initial investigation, said that the fire started in the east end of the car, presumably in one of the packed cases containing the army equipment. The flames ate their way to the bottom of the steel car and burned holes in the floor.

It is possible, Dolley said, that a time bomb may have been secreted in one of the cases or in the car and timed to ignite after the shipment had been placed in one of the big government warehouses. The car was delayed three days in transit from the east and this may have prevented a disastrous fire.

Nearly half the car load was lost by the stubborn fire which took firemen and railroad men three hours to extinguish. The car was so hot from the hidden flames that the steel plates on the ends and side of the car buckled. The dense smoke and intense heat prevented men from entering the car for more than a few seconds at a time.

The Truckee fire department, forest service equipment and the S. P. fire train joined in the work.

The fire was discovered in the yards when smoke was seen emerging from the cracks in the door.

While the sabotage theory is being thoroughly investigated, it is possible carelessness by men loading the car may have been responsible.

COLFAX, July 23—Mr. and Mrs. H. A. Wittich of this city have been notified by the war department that their son, Richard, is listed as missing in action. He was a member of the army air corps stationed in the Far East.

Kin of "Bob" Caves Are Located in Malta, Mont.

Deputy Coroner W. H. Laity this week learned through an extensive investigation that Vincent O. Caves, 51, well known Truckee man, who died here more than three weeks ago, left a mother and father residing in Malta, Montana.

In a watch box found among Caves' possessions was a picture of a woman and an unfamiliar name and address in Wyoming and another address given as Malta. Laity wrote to both addresses and authorities there learned that both Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Caves, father and mother of the dead man, were still living in Montana. The mother wrote for particulars and indicated she would have the body shipped there for interment.

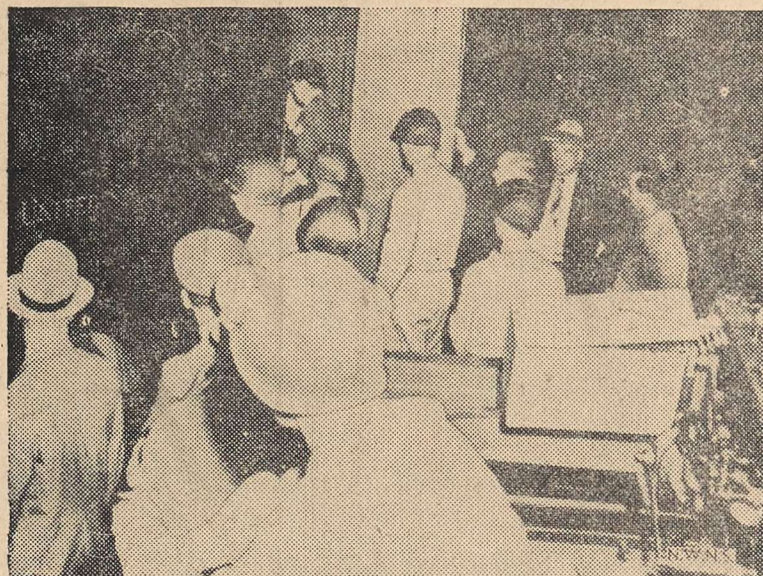

The letter disclosed that she had not heard from her son in many years. He left only a small estate, Laity said.

Captain Pete, Last Of Washoe Chiefs, Buried At Stewart

Indian Ancient Frequent
Visitor At Lake Tahoe
In Century of Life.

STEWART (Nev.), July 17—Capt. Pete, believed to be close to 100 years of age and last of the old time chiefs of the Washoe Indians, was buried here last week with Christian rites. He died in Dresslerville.

Captain Pete was born along the Truckee River near where the town of Truckee now stands. When the emigrant trains passed through this section he was living in the Carson Valley. He was known as a peace-maker and settled many disputes between the whites and his tribesmen.

His tribesmen, through his influence, lent much support to the founding of the Indian school and agency here.

Captain Pete, with his wife, Agnes, an Indian princess and the last of the Washoe royal family in the Carson region, had been a regular summer visitor at Lake Tahoe every year for the past half-century or more. He was known among Tahoe residents as a mild soft-spoken man. In his travels he added to picturesque appearance by carrying his bundle of bow and arrows on one arm and a small bag of pine nuts on the other. The pine nut is the mainstay of the native Washoe diet as well as being a principal item of commerce with them.

In his treks at the lake he was invariably followed, in true Indian fashion, by his "little" wife, carrying all the couple's belongings. Agnes' appearance confirms her royal lineage.

Captain Pete leaves only his wife, at present in Dresslerville, and one son, Hank Pete, who usually spends the summer with his wife and family in camp near Lakeside on the Nevada side of Lake Tahoe.

The deceased appeared in the MGM musical comedy, Rose Marie, which was filmed at Tahoe in 1935.

Lake Fire Department Has Drill on Monday

TAHOE CITY, July 23— Captain A. M. Henry of Tahoe's volunteer fire department on Monday evening called a practice drill for his firemen, 11 responding. The purpose of the drill was to become acquainted with the new equipment which was recently purchased for the Tahoe department. The new fire truck, recently painted red, has now received its silver lettering which reads "Tahoe City Fire Department." Jess Sisk and Henry painted the masterpiece while A. Stoddard did the lettering. The department plans for a fire drill every other week, or oftener, each time a different type. Mrs. A. M. Henry is the only woman on the force. The next call for the volunteers will be by siren at a moment's notice.

Response to Plea For Observers At Lake Good

TAHOE CITY, July 23— Response to the plea for additional observers at the local ground observation post in town has been heeded by a number of residents, although too many cannot be secured. A place will be made for all who apply for service, according to C. W. Vernon, chief observer.

The newest incentive for civilians to serve their country in this service is a lovely royal blue felt arm band, called a brazzard, lettered and winged in orange silk "U S Army Air Force—A.W.S. Observer", which was received by Vernon this week and which is awarded all those completing 100 hours of service. An observer may wear his band until such time as he should resign or for the duration.

At Pearson Home—

Misses Lois Marshall and Shirley Leslie, both of Oakland, are guests of Miss Marilyn Pearson at the home of Mr. and Mrs. V. E. Pearson for two weeks.

This area may well be proud of the job accomplished in the recent scrap rubber drive. Truckee oil company representatives, who were in charge of the project here and at Lake Tahoe, reported that more than 50 tons of the precious material were turned in for salvage. We believe that the record thus established is indicative of the attitude of the citizens of the region in furthering the war effort. When any worthy project is presented, be it the Red Cross, the U.S.O., the sale of bonds and stamps, or the salvage of materials claimed vital to the war effort, citizens of this area may be counted upon to more than subscribe their quota and do more than their share of the work involved.

Maybe you often wonder what your chamber of commerce is accomplishing, but rest assured that the work being done is invaluable to the community as a whole. Aside from hundreds of minor duties, such as locating new arrivals in homes, answering inquiries, giving personal information regarding various questions concerning the district and other detailed matters, the chamber weekly issues to all sporting goods houses, newspapers, radios and other media of information, bulletins on the fishing conditions in the district. These bulletins are proving extremely popular and are resulting in bringing increased numbers of vacationists to the area. Many newspapers are publishing the information and the bulletins are being broadcast over the radios. The directors meet each week on Friday at 3:30 p.m. to take up any business which falls in line with chamber of commerce activity. They invite your constructive criticism and suggestions. All in all, a good job is being done and benefits are being seen.

Local Bowling Alley Is Re-opened By Pair

The Truckee Bowling Alley, formerly operated by Walter Becker and Harold Kimball, both now in the service of Uncle Sam, has been re-opened by Charles Brunk and Jesse Graham and is proving to be an outstanding attraction. The new managers leased the building and equipment and last week games were started.

To provide added incentive for bowlers, the managers are offering free passes to the Donner Theater for the highest scores. There will be 12 passes issued each week, three going to the man, three to the woman, three to the boy and three to the girl with the highest weekly score.

New captains include Vernon A. Nelson, former Bank of America teller, of Truckee.

Candidates for County Posts Visit In Week

Mr. and Mrs. Andy Holmes of Grass Valley were in Truckee this week while Holmes greeted friends in behalf of his candidacy for re-election as coroner of Nevada County. Another county office seeker here during the past week was Theodore A. (Ted) Kohler, 28-year-old public administrator candidate.

EDITORIAL

INCOME TAX'LL GET YOU

The income tax will get you whether you watch out or not. The federal tax for this year of 1941 is steep enough. It has hit wage earners who had never before come within range of that particular tax scythe. The 1942 bill approved by the House ways and means committee will cut to the bone.

A handyman making a scant $600—$50 a month—will be caught by the scythe $15 worth. The clerk earning $1500 must save $181 out of it as his share of the extraordinary levies of costly wartime.

Californians have, however, a chance to protect themselves against squeezing out additional money for the war-rich treasury in meeting the State income tax. On the November ballot will be an initiative measure to repeal the State income tax. Most California taxpayers will kill the superfluous State income tax November 3. For the war-financing U. S. treasury, in need of every spare dime, is going to get them—and for plenty!

The Censor's Story

On Bastille Day, the French censor at Vichy blue-pencilled a United Press story. It came through: "VICHY, July 14—Two hundred words censored. End." By killing the entire story, that censor simply wrote: "French riot against Axis! Demonstrate for America and England!" He told the story more forcefully than the reporter could have written it.

MY PLACE IN THE SUN

by DOUG BARKETT

Well, dear friends, this is just about the last My Place that will be knocked out on the old L. C. Smith. I have been ordered to appear for induction into the army in the next week. I could say that I am overjoyed with the prospect—but you all know me better than that. I am willing to go, yes, but all the same it is a hateful business. I am, like most Americans, a conscientious objector to war and its attendant philosophy. I am a man of peace, but I cannot see any peace without victory by force. If it's force they want, then, by the eternal, it's force they'll get. I am ready to do my part to reaffirm that my ancestors from 1630 on have not fought for a free America in vain. I'll drop you all a line as soon as I get settled and will drop in and see you whenever possible. So for now, goo-by now.

POLITICAL FOOTNOTE: Last week when Eben Smart was in town campaigning for county assessor, he went into Truckee Merc, walked up to Bill Wilkie, stuck out his paw and stated, "My name is Eben Smart," ignoring the proffered five, Bill simply stated: "You're a liar. You're too young." The difficulty was soon overcome when it came out that Bill had gone to school with Eb's father in the old days in Dutch Flat.

There has been a lot of proenconing going on in recent months about the ethics of flying the flag after sundown during war time. One school contends it is o.k. and the other says, to wit, "No." On no less authority than the U. S. Flag association we have it that "the American Flag, except on special occasions and when an objective is under attack by the enemy, should be flown only from sunrise to sunset." So, that settles that—doesn't it?

A few happy birthdays have piled up on me this week, to wit, the Joseph twins, Azad and Yvonne, or July 15-16... Dickie Loynd on the 19th... and Jerry, Walt Loynd's old German shepherd, who was 13 on the 26th. Dogs of his type are considered old at seven so that puts in the class of the ancients... also, too my dad's sister, Winnie Harris, passed another milestone on July 20. To all and each, many happy and prosperous returns of the days.

STREET SEENS: Daphne Fields, P. T. T. stenog, keeping cool and looking it in brown slacks, a yellow knit blouse and a no man's land between... Rufe Gregory street sweeping in front of the Sportland... Charlie Brunk and Jesse Graham running the bowling alley at full tilt... Azad and Yvonne Joseph trying to teach Dot Barrett Armenian with spotty success... Bob and Tina Bowers and Eva and Ang Besio for a dip in Donner in Besio's four-cylinder Cad... heard an announcer introduce the able commendation of Drew Pearson Sunday as that of "Droop Pearson"... and speaking of Pearson, spotted that youngest "Hello" girl, Verna P., with a trayful of soft drinks from Loynd's for the hard-working gals at the exchange... Ted Kohler, candidate for county administrator, door-to-dooring as the youngest candidate for county office....

What You Buy With WAR BONDS

The Army's fighter planes are the finest in the world and develop speeds up to 400 miles an hour. They cost approximately $100,000 each, provide fighter escorts for the huge flying fortresses, and combine speed, range, altitude and blistering fire power.

America's plane production plants are working over-time turning out thousands of these fighter planes. War Savings Bonds will help pay for them and the American people are committed to at least ten percent of their income to finance their cost in War Bonds. Every American, buying his share every pay day, will make it comparatively easy to supply our army and navy air corps with these supreme Eagles of the air.

ONLY ONE STOP

to save precious rubber for the war effort, the director of Defense Transportation issued a general order to service industries which says:

- 1.—We cannot make more than one stop at each customer's residence in any one day. This means to pick up your laundry, your bundle must be ready and available when we call. To deliver your laundry, we must make collections at the time of delivery. If these rules are not complied with, we must postpone delivery or pickup until the next day.
- 2.—We cannot give any special delivery service. This means any requests, other than our regular delivery service, cannot be granted.
- 3.—We must reduce our truck mileage 25 per cent each month below what it was the same month last year. This means we must re-schedule our delivery service in each territory.

This is a government order, we must comply with it. The inconvenience caused by this order will mean a sacrifice to both of us. But we feel that it is a small sacrifice, because it will enable us continue to serve you and at the same time help our nation in its effort to win the war.

Kings Beach Boys Given Send-Off to Naval Service

KINGS BEACH, July 23— Blake Goss and Earl Ballard, widely known Tahoe young men, were fêted at a going-away party at Union Hall in Kings Beach Saturday night preceding their departure for Reno where they enlisted in the U. S. Navy.

The affair was arranged by their fathers, Sam Goss and Gilbert Ballard. The hall was artically arranged and the patriotic motif in red, white and blue was carried out in the decorations and appointments.

Dancing, games and refreshments were enjoyed by the 67 guests.

The two boys were both enlisted as carpenter's mates and left Monday by train for San Diego where they will receive thier primary training.

Carnelian Bay Residents Complain of Garbage

Constable Harry Johanson reported complaints have been made to him from residents in the vicinity of Carnelian Bay concerning the contamination of the lake's waters. The complaints said garbage and other refuse has been drifting to shore at Carnelian Bay, making the water at that point unfit for use. No one has been able o determine at what point or points this waste matter is being dumped as the currents in the lake change from day to day.

Sacramento School Official Will Teach at Lake Session

SACRAMENTO, July 23— George C. Jensen, assistant superintendent of city schools in charge of senior high school, junior college and adult education studies department at the annual summer post session of the College of the Pacific August 3 to 21.

The post session is held at Zephyr Point, Lake Tahoe, following the regular summer session of C. O. P. at Stockton.

Jensen, who has been among the visiting professors of the summer session faculties ince 1936, will offer a course in comparative education and will conduct an education seminar during the three weeks period.

Summer Home At Tahoe Is Destroyed In Blaze

TAHOE CITY, July 16— Mr. and Mrs. George Hart of Reno, who had been visiting in San Francisco, arrived at their summer home at Crystal Bay to find only smoking ruins. The dwelling caught fire, presumably from defective wiring, about two hours before the Harts returned. The Marlette district fire equipment under the direction of Fire Chief W. J. Arsdale, was summoned. The firemen kept the blaze confined to the Hart property. For a time the summer dwelling of Mr. and Mrs. P. Mirc, nearby, was threatened.

The fire first was discovered by a maid in the Mirc home, who telephoned the alarm to the Truckee Ranger Station.

abc's of wartime travel

avoid week-end travel

Travel is always heaviest on week-ends. By planning to start your trip on a Tuesday, Wednesday or Thursday, you have a wider choice of accommodations and you make room for those who must travel on week-ends—war workers and men in the armed services.

be an early bird

Get full information well in advance of the day you plan to leave. Make your reservation and purchase your rail and Pullman tickets early. You thus are assured of accommodations and you avoid last minute rush. It's a good idea to buy your return reservation at the same time.

Cancel promptly

The space you reserve on a train is valuable—too valuable to go unused. If you are forced to change your plans, please cancel your reservation and turn in your Pullman ticket for refund immediately so the space can be used by other travelers. Remember that seats on the Streamlined Daylights must be reserved in advance. Here, too, we ask you to turn in your reservation promptly if you decide not to go.

don't waste space

If you need a compartment, a drawing room, or a bedroom by all means buy it. But please don't take more space than absolutely necessary. A berth may be all that you really need. Or share a room with a friend or business associate when you are traveling together.

To get $25 a month starting in 10 years, buy an $18.75 War Bond every month now.

have taken after him, with F. G. Finnegan, a Nevada City barrister, as their candidate, and are pouring real dough into the fight. Gertrude V. Clarke of Sutter Creek, past State president of the PTA, and R. R. Henderson of Lone Pine, are also in there pitching. And it looks like a merry brannigan.

Most hotly contested battle for a GOP nomination at the moment, according to the political dopesters, is the contest between Assemblyman Fred Houser and James Rolph III for Lieutenant Governor. Anything can happen; it largely depends on which one of the boys covers his territory the fastest between now and election day.

There's a terrific explosion coming soon, according to the grapevine, about politics in the State Defense Council. There are too many paid men in the set-up who have had orders to go out and work for Governor Olson's re-election. And some of them have been talking!

CANADA HAS 4,000 AIRWOMEN

Passed by Censor.

Smart and serviceable are the new uniforms of the R.C.A.F. (Women's Division). This summer uniform (above) is a washable shirtwaist dress of blue fabric, with a six-gore skirt and brass buttons. The sports uniform is light, practical and attractive, as this photograph (at right) of a shapely, young airwoman demonstrates. The uniform is in a soft grey-blue shade, the shorts of fine cotton twill and the pullover of knitted cotton.

SUMMER uniform for the Royal Canadian Air Force (Women's Division) is a blue shirtwaist dress, bearing the insignia and brass buttons worn on the tunics of airwomen of equal rank. It is modelled by Alicia Morris of Montreal, formerly on the staff of a large department store, now Airwoman, Second Class, in training for the trade of equipment assistant.

In that trade—which involves dealing with air force stores and equipment—as in other capacities of which cook, hospital assistant, transport driver, parachute rigger, meteorologist, office worker and waitress are only a few, women of Canada are enlisting to release manpower for more strenuous duties, notably that of aircrew.

Taking the W.A.A.F. of the R.A.F. as its pattern, the women's division is part of the Royal Canadian Air Force, and not an auxiliary. Its members enlist as men do, and go on active service after thorough training which varies in length according to trade. To enter the service, a woman must be between eighteen and forty-one years of age, of medical category "A4B" or higher (equivalent to army standard A), at least five feet in height, of good character, with a minimum educational requirement of high school entrance and the ability to pass an appropriate trade test.

Training is carried on at women's division training depots, followed by courses at specialized schools, and on graduation airwomen are posted to stations of the R.C.A.F. There, they are accommodated in women's division barracks blocks, and share mess halls with airmen of equal rank.

Starting in the autumn of 1941, with nine trades, the women's division now has twenty-seven. Its officers, who hold the King's commission, are drawn from the ranks—most of them graduates of the first training course—150 women who enlisted in October 1941, formed the nucleus of a division which is now nearing the four thousand mark.

used in conducting services, such as candlesticks and chalices, are made of lasting materials and will not have to be replaced for the duration. The order applies only to new production.

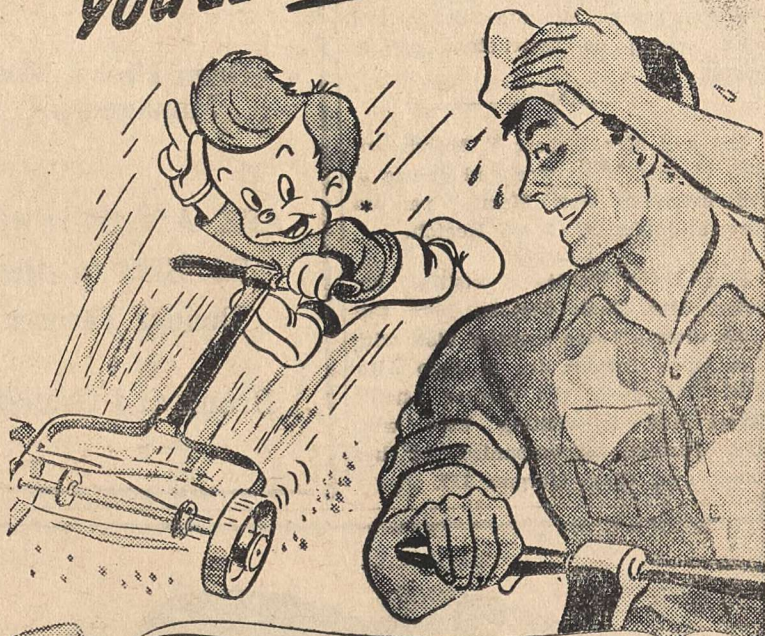

In urging the use of substitute materials, WPB officials declared that a chalice can be produced from a steel base plated with gold. Formerly a chalice was manufactured with a copper base and was gold plated.

The Japanese Current, which tempests California's climate, was discovered by the Spaniards in 1521 and was used by them to speed their galleons to the Philippines.

Feather River was so named by its discoverers because of the quantities of wild duck feathers they found floating on its surface.

Speed Costs Hard Cash State Dept. Tests Reveal

SACRAMENTO, July 23 —U.P.—If there was ever any doubt that it costs you more money to speed your car, some statistics from the state highway traffic advisory committee to the war department should convince you.

It costs twice as much to operate your car at 65 miles per hour as at 40. The cost at 40 is about 2½ cents but the 65 speed is twice that much. Driving at 65 miles per hour, the tire cost per 1,000 miles amounts to $6.75.

Exhaustive tests on 31 cars of light, medium and heavy weight determined that at 25 miles per hour, the tire cost was $1.80. Other speeds were 35 miles, $2.03; 45 miles, $3.38; 55 miles, $4.75 and 65, $6.75.

Visit Parkers—

J. R. Files and Connie Rider visited for the past week with Mr. and Mrs. E. A. Parker. The visitors are from Dixon and Vallejo.

At Donner Lake—

Mr. and Mrs. Chauncey Roberts and daughter, Dolce, of Avonol are spending a two weeks vacation at their summer camp near Donner Lake. Roberts is a former resident of Truckee.

Crossing Caution Urged By Agent in Statement

While the tire shortage alone ought to impel motorists to drive slowly and carefully, there is another and even more important argument for safe operation of motor vehicles these days, according to R. P. Bick, Southern Pacific agent here.

Accidents at highway-railway crossings are delaying the movement of war and other materials, as well as troops and other passengers, it was pointed out, at a time when every effort is being made by the railroads to expedite traffic.

Statistics just released by the Safety Section of the Association of American Railroads show that an average of 38 trains a day or 1,137 trains a month in the United States are being delayed a total of 22 hours a day, or 660 hours a month from this cause, Bick said.

"Eighty-two per cent of the accidents," he continued, "take place at grade crossings which have special protection consisting of gates, flashing lights or watchmen, and one-third of the accidents from motorists driving into the sides of trains."

"Every locomotive and railroad car is needed today, and equipment laid up for repair as the result of grade crossing accidents represents an unnecessary and irreplaceable loss of time and capacity for doing the nation's transport job in the present emergency."
